

FINLAND, WINTER ESCAPE

14 DAYS

A Luxury & Adventure Itinerary • Early December • Snowboarding & Arctic Scenery

★ STYLE Luxury & Adventure	❄ FOCUS Snowboarding + Scenery	■ FOOD Loves Italian • No Seafood	■ MUST-HAVE Excellent, Cozy Stays
HELSINKI — Arrival & City Charm			DAYS 1–3
STAY	DO	EAT
Hotel St. George or Hotel Katajanoda — boutique 5-star, design-district location, highly rated for comfort and service.	- Stroll Senate Square, Helsinki Cathedral and the Design District - Relax in a private waterfront sauna & ice-swim session - Day trip to Suomenlinna sea fortress (short ferry ride)	Faro Bistro or Ragu — upscale Italian trattorias in Helsinki, cosy candlelit rooms, no seafood needed on the menu.
ROVANIEMI & LAPLAND — Arctic Wilderness			DAYS 4–8
STAY	DO	EAT
Arctic TreeHouse Hotel or Santa's Hotel Santa Claus — glass-roofed suites for aurora views, top-tier comfort in the wild.	- Beginner-friendly snowboarding lesson at Ounasvaara Ski Resort - Husky-sled & reindeer-sled excursions through snowy forest - Evening Northern Lights hunt with a private guide - Snowshoe hike through Arctic scenery at golden-hour daylight	Restaurant Nili for hearty Lappish fare (order meat, not fish); La Cantina-style Italian nights back at the hotel bistro.
LEVI — Ski Resort & Adventure			DAYS 9–12
STAY	DO	EAT
Levi's Iglut Suites or Hotel Levi Panorama — slopeside luxury cabins with saunas and mountain views.	2–3 days of snowboarding on Levi's groomed & freestyle slopes - Snowmobile safari across frozen fells at sunset - Optional gondola ride for panoramic scenery photos	Wanha Tupa for cosy Lappish dining; Trattoria-style Italian dinner available in the resort village — seafood easy to skip.
HELSINKI — Unwind & Departure			DAYS 13–14
STAY	DO	EAT
Return to Hotel St. George for a relaxed final stay before flying out.	- Slow morning at a design-hotel spa & sauna - Last-minute shopping along Esplanadi & Market Square - Farewell dinner and pack for departure	Farewell dinner at an award-winning Italian spot (e.g. Ragu) to bookend the trip on a favourite cuisine.

- Book only 4– to 5-star or well-reviewed boutique stays — a bad room is the one thing that could ruin this trip, so confirm reviews before booking.
- December means ~6 hours of daylight — plan scenery & snowboarding around midday light, save saunas and dining for evenings.
- Pack proper thermal layers (–20°C possible) and confirm snowboard gear rental at each resort in advance.
- Pre-book Northern Lights and husky/reindeer excursions — December slots fill quickly for Lapland.