

SINGAPORE

DECEMBER / 7 DAYS / RETURN TRIP

A relaxed week built around Singapore's street districts, Chinese and Malay food, Skyline Luge and one proper club night - planned enough to feel easy, but never over-scheduled.

COMFORT-FIRST ITINERARY

One main area per day. Only two fixed priorities.

DAY 01 MARINA BAY WATERFRONT

After checking in, you can take an unhurried sunset walk from Merlion Park through Esplanade and Helix Bridge. Keep the first evening light; the skyline is the main attraction.

FOOD Lau Pa Sat - satay, Hokkien mee or oyster omelette.

DAY 02 CHINATOWN + ANN SIANG HILL

You can follow Pagoda Street, Temple Street and Smith Street, then continue toward Ann Siang Hill and Club Street. The route gives you heritage streets, temples and bars without turning the day into a checklist.

FOOD Maxwell Food Centre - Hainanese chicken rice. Later: Chinatown Complex for claypot rice, roast meats or dumplings.

DAY 03 KAMPONG GELAM + JALAN BESAR

You can start with lunch at Hjh Maimunah, then walk Arab Street, Bussorah Street and Haji Lane. If you want a later Chinese supper, Swee Choon on Jalan Besar keeps the evening in the same part of the city.

FOOD Hjh Maimunah - nasi padang, beef rendang and sambal goreng. Swee Choon - dim sum.

DAY 04 SENTOSA / SKYLINE LUGE

You can make Skyline Luge the only timed booking of the trip. Three or four rides gives it enough time to feel worthwhile, then leave the rest of Sentosa open for Siloso Beach or a slow drink by the water.

FOOD Malaysian Food Street at Resorts World Sentosa - a convenient Malaysian-style hawker stop.

DAY 05 JOO CHIAT + KATONG

You can walk Joo Chiat Road and Koon Seng Road for Peranakan shophouses, then continue along East Coast Road before finishing at East Coast Park. Keep this as the quietest day before the late night.

FOOD 328 Katong Laksa - laksa; add otak-otak or kaya toast nearby.

DAY 06 ORCHARD ROAD + ZOUK

Schedule this day for Friday or Saturday. You can spend the afternoon around Orchard Road and Emerald Hill, have an early dinner, then move to Clarke Quay before Zouk. Book the event once the December line-up is released.

FOOD Song Fa Bak Kut Teh, 111 Somerset - peppery pork-rib soup, rice, youtiao and vegetables.

DAY 07 TIONG BAHRU + DEPARTURE BUFFER

You can start late at Tiong Bahru Market, walk Yong Siak Street and Eng Hoon Street, then keep the afternoon free for shopping, a long lunch or Jewel Changi depending on your flight.

FOOD Tiong Bahru Market - chwee kueh, fishball noodles or carrot cake with kopi.

TRIP RHYTHM

- Start around 10:30-11:00 on most days.
- Keep one main district as the day's anchor.
- Book only Skyline Luge and the club event.
- Use MRT in the day; take a Grab after Zouk.

FOOD FOCUS

CHINESE SINGAPOREAN

chicken rice / bak kut teh / dim sum / claypot rice

MALAY

nasi padang / beef rendang / sambal goreng / satay

TWO PRIORITIES

SKYLINE LUGE

Pre-book 3-4 rides. December can be wet, so keep the rest of the Sentosa day flexible.

CLUB NIGHT

Place Day 6 on Friday or Saturday. Zouk is the main plan; check the event listing and ticket details closer to December.

DECEMBER NOTE

Rain can be sudden and heavy. Keep an umbrella with you and treat outdoor plans as movable rather than cancelled.
