7-DAY ITINERARY

- 1

SAT

Arrival & Sukhumvit Welcome

Land at Suvarnabhumi/Don Mueang and take a pre-booked private transfer to your hotel — no haggling, no stress. Settle in, then ease into the trip with an evening stroll through a Sukhumvit or Asiatique The Riverfront night market. Grab your first moo ping skewers and a cup of cha yen to kick things off right. Food
- 2

SUN

Grand Palace & the Jade Buddha

Arrive by 8:30am (dress modestly — covered shoulders & knees) for the Grand Palace and Wat Phra Kaew, home of the revered Jade (Emerald) Buddha. Next door, admire the giant reclining Buddha at Wat Pho and treat yourself to a traditional Thai massage. Riverside lunch featuring tom yum goong, then a relaxed Chao Phraya river cruise before an evening food crawl through Chinatown (Yaowarat). Temple Food
- 3

MON

Silk, Shopping & a Fabulous Night Out

A slower morning — sleep in, enjoy the hotel pool. Afternoon visit to the elegant Jim Thompson House or a browse through Siam's malls. Tonight's the headline event: dinner and a dazzling drag queen cabaret show (Calypso Cabaret at Asiatique is the classic choice — book seats in advance). Cap the night with mango sticky rice and one more cha yen. Drag Show
- 4

TUE

Ancient Ayutthaya Day Trip

Join a small-group guided day trip (hotel pickup included, so no navigating alone) to Ayutthaya, Thailand's atmospheric former capital. Wander Wat Mahathat — famed for its Buddha head cradled in tree roots — and the riverside ruins of Wat Chaiwatthanaram. Lunch is included; back in Bangkok by evening for an easy dinner near your hotel. Temple
- 5

WED

Market Mornings & a Cooking Class

Browse the stalls of Chatuchak or Or Tor Kor Market for souvenirs and fresh produce. In the afternoon, join a hands-on Thai cooking class and learn to make your own tom yum and pad thai from scratch — the tastiest souvenir of all. Finish with sunset drinks at a rooftop bar overlooking the skyline. Food
- 6

THU

Floating Market & Spa Day

Morning boat ride through the colorful Damnoen Saduak floating market — snap photos and sample fruit straight from the vendors' boats. Back in the city, unwind with an afternoon Thai massage & spa treatment. Round out the trip with a farewell dinner: one last round of tom yum, moo ping, and cha yen at a well-loved local spot. Food
- 7

FRI

Last Bites & Departure

Spend the morning at Terminal 21 — its themed floors and food court are perfect for final souvenirs and one more snack run. Convert any leftover cash back before heading to a private airport transfer. Kop khun ka/khrap, Thailand!

MUST-TRY FOOD TRAIL

- Tom Yum Goong

Spicy-sour prawn soup — best found at riverside Thai restaurants or classic local eateries. Order it "medium spice" if you're easing in.
- Moo Ping

Grilled pork skewers with sticky rice — a night-market staple. Look for stalls with a steady stream of locals lining up.
- Cha Yen

Thai iced milk tea. The bright orange cup (ChaTraMue) is the iconic, original brand — sold nearly everywhere.

KEEP YOUR MONEY SAFE

- ✓ Split your cash — carry only the day's budget, lock the rest in the hotel safe.
- ✓ Wear a zipped crossbody bag in front of you at markets and on transit.
- ✓ Use ATMs inside banks or malls, ideally in daylight — skip standalone street machines.
- ✓ Book rides via the Grab app or hotel desk instead of hailing unmetered taxis.
- ✓ Photograph your passport & cards and pack a backup card in a separate bag.
- ✓ Get travel insurance before departure to cover theft or loss.
